Sir,

Subs- Compassionate gratuity--Late M. Thaniappa, formerly peon, Government Arts College, Mangalore. Application from the widow.

10530

In submitting herewith an application for Compassionate gratuity from Srimathi Honnamma, Widow of M. Thaniappa, late peon Government Arts College, Mangalore, I have the honour to state as follows:

DEPUTY SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT 16 OCT 1954 FINANCE DEPARTMENT

M. Thaniappa died on 18-6-1953. He is survived by his widow and two children. The financial position of the family as revealed by the Report of the Revenue authorities is as follows.

The applicant has no other source of income, except a sum of Rs.676-13-0 due to her from her husband's insurance fund. But the deceased is said to have left a debt of Rs.800/- The widow maintains her family by doing Cooly-work. She has no relations who are in a position to help her. She has to maintain her two children, aged 13 and 5 years respectively.

It is thus seen that the financial position of the applicant is very poor; and she appears to deserve help from Government. The Revenue authorities state that she deserves a substantial compassionate gratuity.

The work and conduct of the peon, while in service, were satisfactory. The pay last drawn by him was Rs.24-8-0 plus 19-0-0 (Dearness Allowance) His total service under Government is over 19 years.

In view of the indigent circumstances in which the widow and her family are now placed and in view of the recommendations of the Revenue Authorities to sanction a substantial compassionate gratuity, I recommend that a compassionate gratuity of Rs.400/- (Rupees Four hundred only) may be sanctioned to the applicant.

The Service Book, Personal file and Last Pay Certificate of the late peon and other gratuity papers are herewith submitted.

Yours faithfully,

for Director of Public Instruction

NRC No.322/A-53

Submitted to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras with all enclosures.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION 16 AUG 1954

2. Late M. Thaniappa was [illegible] as a permanent peon of this College with effect from 1-8-19[illegible] and he was continuing in the post till his death on 18-6-1953. He had a great sense of duty and was hardworking and faithful. His work and conduct throughout his service in this College, were quite satisfactory.

3. During the two or three years before his death he had to go on leave for x long periods every now and then as he was suffering from lumbago trouble and he was even admitted into the Government Hospital as an in-patient in September, 1950. Again in 1952 he had a fall from the bicycle while he was on duty and he had to be admitted to the hospital. He was found to be suffering from Diabetic Ulcer and as such had to be on long leave with or without leave allowances till 14-7-1952 when he rejoined duty producing medical certificate of fitness. Consequent on his entering on leave with half pay or sometimes without allowances, he must have incurred debts since he had to maintain his own family and also spend on his treatment. His family consists of a wife and two children one aged 13 years and the other aged 5 years. He attended the College for duty regularly from 14-7-1952 but towards the last period of his life he was found to be very weak and was not able to do hard work. The college was closed for the Summer vacation on the 2nd April, 1953 and he was permitted to avail himself of the vacation. He died during the Vacation period after a brief illness. He had come to the College for receiving his salary for May, 1953.

The report received from the Revenue authorities show that the assets of the petitioner, widow of the late M. Thaniappa are little. In view of the poverty and helplessness created by the premature death of the only earning member of the family and that the petitioner has to maintain the family with what little she earns now as a cooly, as reported by the Tahsildar, her request for the grant of the maximum compassionate gratuity is recommended.

Late M. Thaniappa was drawing a monthly salary of Rs.24-8-0 plus D.A. Rs.19/- and House Allowance of Rs.5/- per month. As such a sum of Rs.522/- is recommended to be paid as compassionate gratuity to Srimathi Honamma, widow of the late M. Thaniappa.

Sir,

I am the widow of M. Thaniappa, Peon, Govt. Arts College, Mangalore, since deceased.

2. My husband was working as peon in the Govt. Arts College for more than 20 years and left behind a very good record of service. He left behind him two children 1.Leelavathi aged 12years, and 2.Somanatha aged six years. Further, he also had incurred huge debts for meeting medical expenses and also domestic expenses, and now I am obliged to repay these debts. There is no one in my family now to look after us, as he was the only earning member, and as such, we are left utterly helpless. I have already represented all these facts also my difficulties in my letters to the Principal immediately after my husband's demise and requested for the sanction of a substantial gratuity and relieve me from my difficultips. I shall be ever grateful for your early orders in the matter, as I am now very hard-pressed by my creditors.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Sir,

Sub:- Gratuity - on behalf of late M.Thaniappa, peon of Govt. College - now deceased.

Ref: Yours R.C.No.322A./53 dated 15-5-1954.

I beg to submit that I am in receipt of your Memo. under reference above. I admit that I am governed by Aliyasanthana law of inheritence.

That my husband's family ought to have paid the debts in question if his family possessed a property out of its income. But my husband's family ~~do not~~ possess any property.

The debts in question were raised by my husband when he was alive and the said debts were incurred purely for his malady of diabetes from which disease he was suffering from a number of years. The debts in question were loans raised by him for his treatment. In the circumstances the payment of the said debts have fallen to my unfortunate lot.

That my husband's life was insured for Rs. 750/-. He has obtained a loan of Rs. 56-3-0 on his policy. The said loans has not been repaid. That my husband is entitled to get Rs. 676-13-0 on his insurance policy.

In the circumstances set forth above it is prayed that my claim for compassionate gratuity may kindly be favourably considered to enable me to defray the debts incurred by my deceased husband for his protracted illness of diabetes from which he has been suffering from a considerably long period.

Awaiting for the favour of an early compliance of my request.

The peition forwarded with N.Ref No. 6175-54-B 4 dated 11-6-1954 shown to me, has been written by me. My husband M.Thaniappa was working as peon in the Government Arts College, Mangalore for over 20 years and he died about one year ago. He was sick during about 4 years prior t his ~~death~~ death. When he was sick, we had no money to meet the medical expenses towards his treatment and we had to borrow money from Sri. Manjunath Papaliya , Babu Gatti of Bikarnayakatte and Lokayya Gatti and these amounts remain unpaid. It is not possible for me to state at present ~~how much exactly the~~ the actual amount due to these people and others from whom we have borrowed. The deceased has no immovable property. The two children born to him (1) Leelavathy (2) Somanatha aged 13 years and 5 years respectively are minors and are entirely depending upon me. I am a poor helpless widow and now I am living with my sister with our two children. I am now working as a Cooly here in order to earn our livilihood. Considering my helpless condition I pray that the Government may be pleased to grant me some gratuity.

My husbands debts amount to about Rs 800/-
